Your adherence to these procedures will ensure proper credit when payment is received.

If EPA does not receive payment within thirty (30) days of the due date, interest will accrue on the amount due from the due date at the current annual rate prescribed and published by the Secretary of the Treasury in the Treasury Fiscal Requirements Manual Bulletin per annum through the date of payment. Interest will be compounded annually at a new rate every October 1st of the year.

If dispute resolution is invoked, for the purposes of interest calculation, the due date for the disputed amount is the date of final resolution of the dispute.

Any act to obstruct the EPA's ability to recover moneys received by you may be considered as a violation of the provisions of the Federal Debt Collection Act. Other penalties for failure to make a timely payment may also apply.
